YOU FOUND ME

Intro: |C#m / / / | A2 / / / | E / / / | B / / / |x2

Section A:

```
    C#m     A2                E              B
You found me, You've stolen my heart, stolen my heart
    C#m     A2            E              B
You found me, awakened my heart, awakened my heart
```

Section B:
```
C#m                         A
        When all around is sinking sand
                            E
You're the Rock on which I stand
                            B
You're the Rock on which I stand
C#m                             A
        And in the pain and suffering
                            E
You are stretching out Your hand
                            B
You are stretching out Your hand
```

Section C:
```
        C#m / A2 / E / B
To me
```
