Verse 1:

I've never been here before, There's a wrestle in my soul
Everything I knew has changed, I will never walk the same
I don't recognise this world, Yet today the sun still rose
Suddenly my life has changed, Yet I know You're still the same

Chorus:

G D Bm
You never let me go, You hold me in Your promise
A
My world is in Your hands
G D Bm
You never let me go, Even in the darkness
A
My world is in Your hands

Verse 2:

I have never felt so lost, In this pain and paradox
I don't understand right now, but I trust in Your plan
You're the peace within the storm, The stillness when I've lost control
You hold me when my strength is gone, I have never walked alone

Bridge:

G Bm A
In the tension, I will be forever changed
G Bm A
Moving forward, I am marked by Your grace
G Bm A
In the struggle, Your blessings still remain
G A
For You have overcome, You have overcome

End:

D Bm
You never let me go, You never let me go
G D
You never let me go my world is in Your hands
